Managing work/study schedules is a difficult and time consuming task. By using the Daily Planner, you can manage your busy lifestyle by: a) Separating your day into Work and Study Schedules, allowing you to have a clear mind throughout the day. b) Accurately tracking your work and study activities. c) Sorting and Managing your work and study activities. d) Creating detailed reports and statistics of all your activities. e) Staying organized and on top of the task at hand. f) Visually tracking the past and future of your work and study activities. g) Looking up information instantly by key word. h) Calculating the complete planning of any business in any field, or any study for that matter. i) Removing the stress that results from a cluttered schedule by having everything easily at hand. j) Remaining flexible by being able to easily switch between Business and Study Planner. Keep track of your professional obligations with the Daily Schedule Being on top of your obligations is important, especially if you were planning on working your daily schedule at your busiest time of the year. Enter your work, study and appointments, keeping in mind your free time. Schedules are organized by day, week, and month. Enter your events and activities to be able to keep track of your time. Events are sorted into the different categories, such as school, work, social, and family. Separate categories allow you to have a clear view of the activities occurring. Easy to use You have the option of entering your work, study and appointments in several different methods: 1) By text - Add an event by simply typing a subject and the event name. 2) By voice - Add an event by saying the subject and event name. 3) By picture - Add an event by taking a picture of your event. The Daily Planner will remember the information that you enter, and more importantly, the information that you don't want to forget, and will remind you before each event. You can access information that you have entered, or you can even update previously entered information. You can also share your Daily Planner with your family and friends by allowing them to add events and activities to your planner. Setting reminders is easy. Simply go into the Reminders section, set the reminder type and choose how many days in advance you
