Test Your Skill The new player ratings for FIFA 22 are based on the motion capture data and include adjustments on individual ratings for different positions. Players' ratings also have been adjusted for more accurate and diverse reactions to passes and tackles. AI & Playmakers FIFA 22 introduces a new build-up based AI. In addition to attacking build-up, FIFA 22 will also incorporate a new system to make the defenders better pass defenders and catch the ball, reacting to players from both sides.

Players will also read the ball better to spot opportunities for movement, then play the pass, while anticipating the defender's position, anticipating the next pass or passback. Create Your Dream
