Click on " Use Code " and enter your serial number.Nick Minghella looked like he was trying to remember the answers to basic calculus problems during a "Good Morning America" interview Wednesday. "You know, here's the problem: A 40-year-old man looks at his young female ex-girlfriend, and he says to her: 'You've done a great job today, but you need to put more effort into your looks. If we started dating again, you'd look much more attractive,' " ABC anchor George Stephanopoulos said. "And the woman, a 43-year-old woman, says: 'Amen, brother,' " Minghella added. The dealer in the story is, um, sitting next to Nick Minghella. The entire interview, as played by the L.A. audience at home, broke down only when Minghella expressed his jealousy over his ex-girlfriend's appearance. "Well, as an aspiring film director, I can tell you that there's a little envy there," Minghella said. "The first time I saw her, of course, I was. I was jealously because I saw a young woman who was talented and who was beautiful, and I wondered if one day I could learn to
